Thought for this week

In Luke 10, Jesus sends out seventy - or seventy-two - ordinary disciples, not experts, on a mission to every town and village. This is marked by urgency, vulnerability, and dependence on God. They are sent as lambs among wolves, bearing peace and announcing the nearness of God's Kingdom - a Kingdom not just promised, but present. Their instructions are stark and demanding, yet they return with joy, having witnessed healing, hospitality, and victory over evil.

Jesus reminds them - and us - that true identity lies not in success, but in being known and loved by God. In our mission to live out the Christian life, we are called to trust, to go out faithfully, and to share peace, even in the face of rejection, knowing that God's Kingdom strangely breaks into the world through our sincerity.

Fellowship Lunch is today, Sunday 6 July at 12.00, in the Church Centre. If you would otherwise be dining alone, please do come and join us for a light lunch and some good company. You would be most welcome and we look forward to seeing you. Pauline Gallacher

Andrew will be attending the Newcastle Diocesan Clergy Conference in Hexham on the 7th and 8th of July.

Guitarists Giulio Tampalini and Daniele Fabio are returning to All Saints this Wednesday 9th July at 1pm. They are world-class musicians and have drawn up an outstanding varied programme 'From Bach to Hendrix'. Please encourage friends and neighbours to come along - the cost is £10 on the door. Our church takes a share of the gate and all proceeds from refreshments. Anyone willing to serve modest, light refreshments? If so, please speak to or contact Rosamund Place! More information, see poster below.

There will be a session planning and preparing for the three upcoming Messy Church sessions in the autumn on Wednesday 9th July at 7:30pm in the Columba Room. We'll also continue our discussion on how we can be more welcoming to children and young families in all that we offer. All welcome.

There will be a music concert by Archbishop Runcie School in church on Friday, 11th July at 1.30pm, featuring a shortened concert version of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat. The children have spent many weeks practising, and it promises to be a wonderful afternoon of familiar and much-loved songs. All are welcome.

Will everyone who is coming to the meal please meet at Basilico on the High Street at 6.00pm on Friday 11th July. If you would like a lift or would just like to go with someone, please have a word with Pam - 0797746084. If your name is not yet on the list but you'd like to join us, please phone the number above.

The next Mothers' Union meeting will take place on Monday 14th July at 2.00pm in the Church Centre. We'll be making up 60 comfort bags which will be given to the mothers leaving their children at Runcie School on Day 1 in September. Please come and give us a hand - no need to be a member. Refreshments and fellowship afterwards

Please see the poster for the Shakespeare performance on the church green.

Over the past few weeks, I've written that a trained team may invite you to have a short, informal conversation known as a one-to-one. These conversations lie at the heart of how we build strong and trusting relationships within our church community. A one-to-one is simply a chance to listen to each other's stories, to share what matters in our lives, and to explore the values and concerns that connect us. Through this kind of intentional listening, we can uncover fresh energy and purpose—for our life together and for our mission in the wider world.

Our one-to-one team includes Andrew Cole, Felicity Shoemith, Dana Corso, Claudia Newbegin, Luke Williams, Diane Henderson, and myself. If you're invited to take part in a one-to-one, I warmly encourage you to say yes. Andrew

It's Plastic-Free July, an event that has been active across the globe for some years now. We are encouraged to consider the amount of plastic we use and to reduce it - simple! Why not have a go? More details can be found at www.plasticfreejuly.org The Eco Group next meet on 6th July at Parish Breakfast. Please join us. All Saints' Eco Group

Open Gardens Mrs Emma Murdoch has kindly offered to open her garden on Sunday July 20th at 2.30pm The address is 8 Elgy Road, Gosforth, NE3 4UU. There will be an honesty box available with all funds going to the church.

The next Deanery Synod will be on Tuesday 22 July, refreshments from 6.45pm, the meeting beginning at 7.15pm. The location has yet to be announced.

The All Saints Sung Evensong on Sunday, 27th July will take place at 4pm at the Cathedral, featuring our choir who have been invited to lead the singing.

Prayer Walk In Gosforth, just three miles from the city centre, we enjoy green spaces, tree-lined streets, and diverse birdlife due to the large gardens. Other wildlife can be seen from time to time – hedgehogs and urban foxes come out after dusk – and even wild flowers flourish at the sides of the roads and poke their heads out between the paving cracks. We see bees, butterflies and other pollinating insects, and this cycle of life means that over the year there is always something to see – the freshness of spring, the lush greens of summer, the rich colours of autumn and the stark beauty of bare shapes throughout winter. In all of this we are truly blessed.

This year we are planning a Prayer Walk on Sunday 3rd August, starting from All Saints and wandering up through Elgy Green, over to the Ashburton cemetery and back along to Elmfield Road, Linden Road and to the Centre, stopping at three or four points for a short prayer and reflection, thanking God for the gifts he has given us. We will end the afternoon with tea, cake and fellowship.

The walk will begin at 2.00 pm and take around an hour. It will be suitable for all ages (young children will be given a special 'quiz sheet') and will be pushchair/wheelchair-friendly, but if anyone does find it a little too far there are numerous short-cuts back to All Saints.

Let's just hope for good weather! All Saints' Eco Group

There will be a Confirmation Service on Sunday 16th November led by the Bishop of Berwick here at All Saints. This is an opportunity to take faith to the next level and recommit your life to God through Confirmation. There will be a course concluding with the Confirmation Service. If this is of interest to you, please contact Andrew or Ruth. A candidate has already come forward.
